WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Navy and Marine units were on the alert along the Eastern Seaboard today mid reports of further disturbances in the Dominican Republic.

State Department press officer Lincoln White said use of U.S. forces in the Caribbean country was not planned now. But he did not rule out the possibility of such action later if American lives were endangered.

According to latest reports reaching officials in Washington, the 5,200 Americans in the island were still unharmed.

These military movements during the night made obvious that there was a considerable alert of Navy and Marine forces on the East Coast and in the Caribbean Sea.

The aircraft carrier Shangri-La put out to sea at Jacksonville, Fla. under a "general alert" condition. Its decks were jammed with jet fighters. A Navy spokesman said it was ordered to sea "to be ready in the event of an emergency."

At Camp Lejeune, N. C. a Marine spokesman said units of the 2nd Marine Division were undergoing "a test of our ability to move out rapidly." The Greensboro Daily News, quoting reliable sources, had reported that Marine units along the coast were being loaded aboard carriers to take position in the Caribbean off the Dominican Republic's coast.

At Providence, R.I., television stations interrupted programs to notify the crews of the fleet oilers Caloshatchee and Allagash to return to their ships at once. The Navy said later the crew were called back because the ships had received orders to get under way for "routine fueling operations."

In Washington, a Pentagon spokesman said there would be other ship movements, but he and other officials declined to discuss any specific military movements. Another Pentagon source pointed out that since last year the United States has kept a 20,000 man battalion landing team of the 2nd Marine Division afloat in the Caribbean, ready for immediate action.

This source also noted that the U.S.S. Northampton, flagship of the U.S. 2nd Fleet, put out to sea from Norfolk, Va., Wednesday. He said the aircraft carrier Intrepid sailed Thursday from Norfolk.

At Norfolk, Navy sources had no comment on the deployments. In Washington, available State Department officials said they know of no department request to the military to alert forces for use in the Dominican Republic.

White Pickets Return to New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — About 75 white pickets—the first in several months—turned out at William Frantz School today, carrying placards protesting the integration of classes.

Several police officers stood by as men, women and children carried placards in front of the three-story brick building.

All 16 pupils—at whites and one Negro girl—entered the building by a rear door.

Federal marshals accompanied the Negro girl, as has been the practice since the school was desegregated by order of U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelley Wright last Nov. 14.

The demonstration today was marked departure from the shouting, noisy protests staged at Frantz and McDonogh No. 19 last November.

The lone Negro first-grader has attended Frantz since Nov. 14. Three other Negro first-graders have attended McDonogh No. 19 which has been under a total boycott by white pupils.

Armand Duvio, heading a drive to raise funds for private and segregated schools, said today's demonstration was to attract attention to the campaign for money.

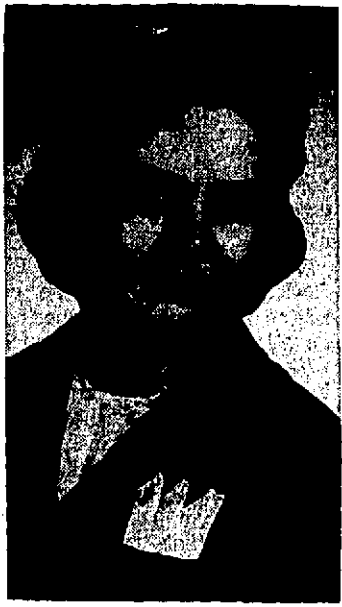

Police said the demonstrations would be permitted as long as they remained peaceful.

All public schools close June 9 for the summer.

Youth Escapes Bike-Auto Wreck

An auto driven by Clarence Harper and a bicycle ridden by Bobby Joe Oiler, 13, collided on Second near the Post Office Friday afternoon and the youth escaped with a skinned arm. However, the bike, owned by Gary Poole, was badly damaged. City and State Police investigated. Harper is a radio operator for the State Police.

Rockefeller Silent on Future Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Winthrop Rockefeller continued silent today on future political plans, although he has taken an upward step in Arkansas' Republican ranks.

The GOP National Committee Thursday confirmed his appointment as Arkansas National Committeeman, a post to which he was nominated by the state Republican Committee May 27.

Again asked if he planned to seek the party's gubernatorial nomination in 1962, Rockefeller continued the "no comment" attitude he has taken so often when asked about political plans.

Similar questions in the past have been met with such Rockefeller answers as: "1962 is a long way off."

Traditionally Democratic Arkansas hasn't had a Republican governor since Reconstruction days and most GOP candidates for the post in recent years have staged only token campaigns.

A lack of funds has been one drawback faced by party officials. Should the millionaire Rockefeller get the nomination, the financial problem probably would disappear.

Rockefeller, brother of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, is a relative newcomer to Arkansas politics. He succeeded veteran Wallace Townsend of Little Rock, who held the committeeman's post for 33 years but resigned in favor of the Morrill financier-cattleman.

The national committee also elected Mrs. W. L. Jameson Jr. of Magnolia to succeed the late Mrs. A. C. Remmel of Little Rock as the state's national committeewoman.

Rockefeller had backed GOP gubernatorial candidate Henry M. Britt of Hot Springs in his unsuccessful bid to prevent Gov. Orval E. Faubus from being elected to an unprecedented fourth term.

Rockefeller began to take an active part in Arkansas Republican circles last October, when he raised $40,000 for the party through a $50 a plate affair at his ranch estate atop Petit Jean Mountain.

The event was billed as "A Party for Two Parties," and featured entertainment by a number of show business personalities.

Despite Rockefeller's political activities he has continued as chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission, a post to which he was named by Faubus when the AIDC was formed in 1955.

Kennedy and Khrushchev Meet Today

By JOHN HIGHTOWER

VIENNA (AP)—President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev—the millionaire's son and the former coal miner—meet today in this old Danube city of glistening spires to test the strength of each other's will.

Kennedy flew from meetings in Paris with French President Charles de Gaulle—meetings he openly said enabled him to confront the Soviet premier "with more confidence."

Khrushchev, outwardly confident, said on his arrival Friday that "We know one cannot settle everything at once. If, however, one has good will, one can also achieve much within a short time."

The leaders of the world's two greatest powers will hold talks today and Sunday with no set agenda.

Their first meeting will be before noon in the residence of U.S. Ambassador H. Freeman Matthews in the Hietzing district near the old Hapsburg palace of Schoenbrunn.

Each brings with him the command of nuclear weapons powerful enough to blot out the other's country and much else of the world besides.

Each heads a rival alliance system—massive, formidable and determined to maintain its own way of life.

The world has waited for this conference of the two K's with mixed feelings of hope and dread.

In great cities and lonely farms, in jungle villages and smoking factories, the meeting has been built up as a possible important turning point in history.

Whether, in fact, it does produce something more substantial than newspaper headlines remains to be seen.

Diplomats predicted there undoubtedly would be some accomplishments. Whatever else develops, the two men should understand each other's motives better. This, in turn, should enable them more easily to avoid the political miscalculations that could lead to war.

Western sources said Kennedy's big task is to try to convince Khrushchev not to overplay his hand.

Developments in Cuba, Laos and elsewhere must have convinced the Soviet leader that he is a front runner at the moment. This could tempt him to push for a showdown on Berlin and Germany, although most Western diplomats feel he will not go that far.

While in the French capital Kennedy declared that he and the French leader were determined to maintain the West's position in isolated West Berlin against "force or the threat of force" by the Communist powers.

That was the sort of statement which America's European allies could greet with pleasure.

Negro May Head L. R. Ministers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Negro minister may become president of the Greater Little Rock Ministerial Association June 12.

The Rev. Rufus King Young, pastor of Bethel AME Church, was the only man nominated for the post Thursday at a meeting of the association's executive board. The board voted 8-1 for his nomination.

He would be the first Negro to head the association, which has about 75 members in Little Rock and North Little Rock.

Only opposition to Young's nomination came from Rev. Darrell Ross, pastor of the Forest Highlands Baptist Church, which has a white congregation.

Ross labeled the action cream-puff and irresponsible.

"I feel the association has a responsibility to render to the community," he said, "and that at this time a Negro as president would not be accepted."

He said the executive committee had to decide on nominees because the nominating committee was in disagreement over nominating a Negro for president.

Rev. P. H. Russell, a Negro who is association first vice president, presided over the board meeting at which Young's nomination came.

The Little Rock School Board and the ministerial group are to meet June 26 to discuss ways of preparing the community for further school desegregation. Ross, association program chairman, said.

Problem With Dominican Is Beginning

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — This country's problem with the Dominican Republic is just beginning. The assassination of Dictator Rafael Leonidas Trujillo did not solve anything.

The 69-year-old Trujillo, after 31 years of tyranny, had outlived his particular time.

The middle class had risen against him. Exiles had invaded him. The Catholic Church had denounced him. And all Latin American nations had broken relations with him.

He survived as long as he did on sheer muscle at a time when social revolutions were sweeping not only Latin America but the world. What outdated him was this:

While all around him the masses of Latin America were demanding greater gratification of their desire for a better life, and a better part in it, he kept his so-called republic frozen in the old ways.

Fidel Castro in Cuba is no less a dictator, with the same contempt for democratic processes. But, beside Trujillo, he looks extremely modern with his promises of a richer life and a sense of belonging for the Cuban masses.

The United States misunderstood this and learned to its dismay, through the disaster of the April invasion, that many Cubans promised better living, support Castro without apparent concern whether he's left or right.

It's an old lesson being relearned painfully around the world: Democracy to people who never really had it means nothing. What they want is to live longer better.

Trujillo had some glimmering of the true nature of this wave of discontent which is sweeping over the dispossessed of Latin America. Like Castro, he pacified the peasants by parceling out land to them. They were docile.

Yet, the farmers scratched out a bare existence. The slum dwell-

Hempstead Could Be First to Require School Bus Drivers to Pass a Driver's Test

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

With the statistics from last weekend's Memorial Day Holiday traffic death toll still haunting us, our attention is more keenly alert to the word Safety and all that it implies in connection with motor vehicles.

One of the biggest responsibilities a driver encounters is in regard to his passengers. This is especially noted by bus drivers. When it comes to school bus drivers, even caution must be taken as passengers who are children are apt to be more unpredictable getting on and off the bus and crossing the street or road.

So much for the children. What about the driver himself? In Hempstead County last year there were 54 school bus drivers who transported a daily average of 2,390 children, white and colored, to all parts of the county. Naturally, they each had to have a driver's license, but a test wasn't required to have an old license renewed.

Is that really the best policy to follow? Our children's lives are entrusted to these drivers, so shouldn't an annual checkup be required of them? Mrs. Ernest Graham, the Health and Safety chairman of the Arkansas HIC Council, has been bringing these facts to the attention of various home demonstration clubs and has found a great deal of interest among the club members.

For two years she has attended meetings of the Health and Safety division of the HIC work. Last year she was one of two delegates to the first national conference on Traffic Safety. She also helped to conduct a class on Traffic Safety at the state HIC meeting in Arkadelphia. In short, she knows whereof she speaks.

In the past few months, Mrs. Graham has urged school districts to require drivers' tests for their bus drivers. After all, company truck drivers must meet certain requirements for the protection of their companies and the produce they carry. How much more important is the safety of what a school bus driver transports!

Though all bus drivers necessarily have licenses to drive, sometimes it has been a good many years since they were given tests to insure their competence. And some may never have been tested.

Such tests or examinations would not cost the school districts nor the bus drivers a dime. The Traffic Safety Division of the Division of the Arkansas Highway Department will send state troopers to give the tests on a date to be set.

School Boards, PTA's, and Superintendents of Schools to whom the proposition has been presented have endorsed it wholeheartedly. Some school boards in the county have passed a ruling requiring that school bus drivers be given tests before receiving licenses to drive. In the near future it is hoped the rest of the school districts will follow suit.

We in Hempstead County would be the first county in the state to require tests of all school bus drivers before license are issued to them. It is something that ought to be done.

Picker Gathered Half Cotton Crop

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department reports about 51 per cent of last year's cotton crop was harvested mechanically. This compared with less than 10 per cent 10 years ago.

This shift to mechanization is cutting sharply into needs for farm labor.

This information was in a cotton situation report which said domestic consumption of cotton continues below year ago levels. Total domestic usage during the marketing year ending July 31 is expected now to be about 800,000 bales below the previous year's 9 million bales.

The report said latest developments indicate exports of about 6.5 million bales compared with 7.2 million last season.

El Dorado to Expand Hospital

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Plans for an 80-bed expansion at a Roman Catholic hospital here were announced Thursday, just five days before a special election to decide on the construction of a Union County hospital.

R. E. Meinert, chairman of the building committee at Warner Brown Hospital, said the expansion would add two stories to the present three-story facility. A new wing would be added on the ground level.

Cost of the project was estimated cost of building the county hospital.

Dr. Sam Jameson of El Dorado said 72 per cent of the doctors in the county favored the expansion of the present hospital over the construction of the second.

Warner Brown is operated by the Sisters of Mercy, a Roman Catholic order, and Meinert said the order would pay a portion of the expansion costs. Additional funds would be sought under the Hill-Burton Act, which provides federal funds for hospital work.

Hill-Burton funds also would be used in the construction of the county hospital.

The countywide special election set for Tuesday is on a two and one-half mill tax to aid in financing the facility.

Riders Ponder U.S. Judge's Stern Order

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Police and leaders of "freedom ride" groups today pondered a federal judge's stern series of warnings aimed at stopping the most recent racial challenge in Alabama and the violence that came with it.

U.S. District Court Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr., issued a series of sweeping decrees which:

—Ordered the riders to stop their racial challenge in Alabama until further notice.

—Put Montgomery police and a former reserve policeman under no-his-violence injunctions, with indefinite jail terms as the penalty for violation.

—Left in effect, pending further court action, a restraining order which prohibits the Ku Klux Klan and three individuals from further violence against the riders or other interstate bus passengers.

Meanwhile, another group of integrationists tried a new tactic on state racial laws at Jackson, Miss. They were peaceful—but unsuccessful.

Thirteen riders arrived at Jackson Friday in two Trailways buses. While Negroes in the groups went into the white waiting room, the whites went into the Negro waiting room. All 13 were arrested for breaching the peace. They brought to 65 the number arrested at Jackson since the rides began last week.

Immediately after issuing his ruling Johnson said:

"I want to make it abundantly clear that this injunction and restraining order will be enforced. If there are any such incidents as this (mob violence) again, I am going to put some Klansmen, some city officials, some city policemen and some Negro preachers in the federal penitentiary."

"Those who sponsor, finance and encourage groups to come into this area with the knowledge that such publicized trips will foment violence," the judge said, "are just as effective in causing an obstruction to interstate travel as the mobs themselves."

One of Johnson's orders was a restraint against the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and three other "freedom ride" organizations as well as five Negro leaders and "all persons acting in concert with them."

In New York, a spokesman for CORE said it will appeal the order to the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

And a Justice Department spokesman in Washington said the department filed a memorandum with Johnson opposing that part of his order aimed at the riders. As the injunction hearing ended the last 50 of the 700 U.S. marshals sent to Montgomery were being returned home.

As Johnson was issuing his rulings, identical bills were introduced in the Alabama House and Senate providing a penalty of 60 days in jail and a $300 fine for anyone who violates Alabama's social customs after giving notice of intentions. Freedom riders have announced their intentions in advance.

Group to Protest Cache Project

CLARENDON, Ark. (AP) — A southeast Arkansas delegation will protest against a proposed Cache River drainage project at House subcommittee hearing in Washington June 12.

Mayor Flynn Shivers of Clarendon, who told of the plans to protest against plans of Army Engineers, said opposition is mounting to the Cache project.

The project calls for a huge ditch—200 feet wide at the bottom—to drain Cache River lowlands from the Missouri state line south. Engineers have proposed an initial planning allotment of $50,000 for the project.

Shivers said opposition points include loss of wetlands for migratory waterfowl, possible flooding of the lower white River from the added water and possible damage to White River fishing from silt-laden water of the proposed canal emptying into it.

When a man is too big for his britches, his hat usually doesn't fit either.

ers were ragged.
He paroled out little else. He lived in the past. In the end his berserk tyranny — mass arrests, persecutions, executions, repression—was to excessive, became his undoing as it may become Castro's.

But he his family and his friends got rich and fat off the republic. It's unlikely Trujillo's fat cats will yield control to some other outside, reform force without a struggle. So there may be bloody days.

If they triumph and set up another tyranny without broad reforms, it will be only a matter of time before they too are smashed. The sweep toward a richer life for Latin Americans is too strong for standstill reaction.

The real struggle eventually in the Dominican Republic will be between communism and this country. Meaning: The influence this country can bring to bear through economic aid and support for a reform government.

At this point it's impossible to say on which side the odds lie. It depends on how far the American government is willing to go to keep communism out of the hemisphere.

The Kennedy administration insists it will not intervene in another nation's affairs—which must sound to the Communists like nice nellyism — but did just the opposite in backing the Cuban invasion.

The area in and around the Dominican Republic is getting ripe for explosion. Sharing the same island with it is Haiti, where living conditions and ignorance are appalling.

And right across a narrow strip of water, called the Windward Passage, is the Cuba of Castro who back in 1949 took part in an invasion against Trujillo. The Dominican dictator demolished it.

But Castro now is in better position for invasion and subversion than he was in 1949 when he was simply a discontented nobody. If he is truly communism's assigned instrument in the Caribbean, he will move against the Haiti-Dominican island.

No matter how you look at it, this is going to be rough.

TV Plans to Emphasize JFK's Trip

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television emphasis during the next week centers on President Kennedy's European trip and meetings with France's De Gaulle and Russia's Khrushchev.

All networks are bumping regularly scheduled programs for news specials — some on such short notice that it is best to consult the daily TV listings in the newspaper for the latest word.

NBC, for example, will have one of its continuing "JFK" reports daily over the weekend and through Monday.

Still in the current events area is another item of special interest: CBS' telecast of the Belmont Stakes on Saturday (4:30-5 p.m., EDT). This is the last of the "triple crown" races.

Edward R. Murrow, director of the U.S. Information Agency, will be Sunday's "Meet the Press" guest (NBC, 6:30-7 p.m.) in his first network TV appearance since his retirement from CBS.

Vivian Vance of "I Love Lucy" will be Red Skelton's guest star Tuesday night (CBS, 9:30-10), and there will be a special ice show starring Peter Lawrod and Peggy Lee on NBC (10-11).

On Thursday there will be a repeat of "CBS Reports" documentary on "A Case of Real Murder" (10-11), and for those in search of a chuckle, there is ABC's "Silents, Please" digest of heroines in peril (10:30-11).

Accidents Claim Lives of 462
CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's highway accidents claimed 462 lives over the long Memorial Day weekend, the worst traffic toll for a Memorial holiday period in the nation's history.

During the 102-hour weekend, there were 683 violent accident deaths. Boating accidents killed 46 persons, drownings 63 and miscellaneous accidents claimed another 118 lives.

Marital Seas Full of Icebergs

By HELE WORDEN ERSKINE

I never realized how many cold, unresponsive, inarticulate husbands there were until the recent publication in this column of a letter from a wife who signed herself, "So Unhappy."

Having born an iceberg of a husband two children, she felt trapped. "Yet if I don't act soon," she wrote, "the children are bound to be hurt because all their father and I do is fight."

I advised her to ask him why he married her, then put the same question to herself, in the hope that this might encourage him to talk and thus clear the atmosphere. Failing this, divorce might be the answer "religion permitting, for living with a man you hate is a double wrong."

Hundreds of wives immediately write in to say that they too had iceberg husbands. This letter from a New Jersey wife is typical:

Dear Helen: My heart goes out to "So Unhappy." I've been putting up with an iceberg for 42 years, enduring him only because of the children.

Man has been living with woman since Adam, yet still doesn't understand the art of being a husband.

Once the honeymoon ends and reality begins, the man disappears. No crying children, helping with housework or cheering up wife for him. He ducks out to play golf, fish or hunt—anything to get away from it all. When the load is too heavy for the poor wife and she becomes irritable or naggy, the man demands a divorce.

A doctor once said to me: "When a woman gets three children, one crying on the floor, another hanging on to her skirts and a third in her womb, the

E. B. Johnson, of Prescott were married at the beautifully decorated E. B. Johnson home at 409 W. Main St. on Monday, May 29 at 10 a. m. in the presence of a few close friends and relatives. Rev. Percy Hoffmann, pastor of the Nazarene Church of Prescott, performed the ring ceremony. The bride wore a ballerina length gown of hand-clipped chantilly lace over net and taffeta and the bodice was designed with a Sabrina neckline. She wore matching lace mitts and her headpiece was of Alencon lace with a Swedish coronet crown and a double veil extending to the fingertips.

The groom wore a white dinner jacket and dark slacks. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the groom's home.

The couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home, 2031 NW, 26th St. apartment No. 8, Oklahoma City. They will both be employed in the summer after which James will continue his college work there. Out of the town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Glen S. ## Has a Time With Handcuffs

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — When police arrested Martha V. Tilghman, 31, Wednesday on charges of taking $4.15 worth of groceries from a food market a policeman placed a pair of handcuffs on Mrs. Tilghman's wrists. But he accidentally broke the key off in the lock and couldn't get them off.

The women was taken to police headquarters in City Hall but officers there, too, were unable to get them off. So Mrs. Tilghman was sent to fire headquarters.

Firemen used a high-speed drill, which heated the cuffs and burned Mrs. Tilghman's wrists. She screamed and firemen doused the heat with water. After 45 minutes she was freed.

She faces a hearing today.

Remarks TV Cowboy Tires of Hearing

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a television cowboy star gets tired of hearing:

"Of course this horse is perfectly safe. He's 20 years old and has anemia."

"I know you hate being called Con O'Leary, but whoever heard of a cowboy named Reginald Van Busted?"

"Put on your toupee. We're about ready to shoot."

"So what if someone did accidentally give you a black eye in that last barnroom brawl? It'll only make the scene more realistic."

"I know cows make you nervous, but in this shot we simply have to put in a few. After all, you're supposed to be riding herd."

"Oh, no! Oh, no! Don't tell me the guy's gone and put his chops on backward again."

"Now don't panic, Con, but your staidin is sick and couldn't show up. I'm afraid you'll have to ride the horse yourself today. But it'll be okay. We'll help you get on and off."

"Just walk up this step ladder slow and easy, put one leg over the saddle and—oops, he's fallen again."

"I don't know who the fastest gun in the West is, but I sure know who's the slowest."

"In the next scene, just as you are about to kiss the heroine, the horse sticks his head between you, and you kiss him square on the muzzle. So what if it isn't sanitary? It'll wow the audience."

"All right, Hamlet, get out of that velvet dressing gown and climb into your Levis. We've got a job to do."

"As I understand it, Con, the real old-timers gripped the gun in one hand, not two, and generally they didn't shut their eyes when they pulled the trigger. And by the way, do you have to hold it like it was a pineapple?"

"But I tell you we have to put a little dirt on your face. After all you're supposed to have been riding hard all day."

"Your valet is late. Do you suppose, just this once, you could get into that cowboy suit all by yourself?"

"Don't grimace when the bartender slides the bottle down the bar to you. Remember it's really only ginger ale."

"Well, if it makes you feel any safer, Con, we'll let you ride side saddle—and pretend you're only doing it as a lark."

"Stop the camera Jake, he's beginning to fall again. Whoa, boy, who!"

Thinks Politics Had Affect

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP)—Inevitable changes accompanying reorganization of Arkansas A&M College may have caused some individuals to feel they were hurt, President Jack W. Mears said Wednesday night.

Mears, however, said all changes have been made with a view toward making A&M realize "its full potential as a service institution . . . to southeast Arkansas."

Mears said he sees nothing unusual in Arkansas A&M's turnover rate. A total of 14 faculty members are reported to be leaving, most of them to return to school or to take jobs at other institutions.

Grain Program
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The number of Arkansas farmers who signed up to take part in the 1961 federal fed grain program is expected to be known Monday when registrations are tabulated. A. C. Mowery Jr. of the state Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee estimated after the registration period ended Thursday that about 6,000 signed up for the program, which is designed to reduce surplus corn and grain sorghums stored in government warehouses. Farmers will be paid for diverting land from such crops to conservation projects.

Faubus Still Promoting Bond Plan

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus continued to promote his proposed $60 million state construction bond plan Wednesday, even as opponents stepped up their campaign to defeat the measure.

Faubus told a closing session of the Arkansas Hospital Association here that other state agencies should not be neglected because the public schools are calling for more funds.

The governor said 50 per cent of the state's revenue goes to the public schools now.

"Should we neglect all these other agencies and institutions to have more consideration for public schools?" he asked.

The bond program, approved by the 1961 Arkansas Legislature, must gain public support at a special election to be called sometime this summer.

Money from the bonds would go for construction at a number of state agencies, including the University of Arkansas, the seven state-supported colleges, State Hospital and Arkansas Children's Colony.

Main opposition has come from the Arkansas Education Association and a group called the Arkansas Committee for the Public Schools, headed by Joshua K. Shepherd of Little Rock. Both groups maintain the program would be advanced at the expense of the public schools.

Shepherd disclosed at Little Rock Wednesday that the committee has sent out requests for donations to aid in the campaign.

The requests went to 200 Arkansas residents who have written the committee to say they want to help in the battle against the bond proposal, Shepherd said.

At the same time, Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the AEA, said that the association's 14,000 teacher members are being urged to apply for absentee ballots if they plan to be away from home this summer.

By putting in advance requests for absentee ballots the teachers would be prepared when the election is called, Rozzell said.

Faubus, in his Hot Springs speech, said Rozzell "wants all the revenue to do with it as he sees fit."

The governor also touched on one of the bond's proposal's financing aspects — revenue from 12 additional days of horse racing at Hot Springs Oklahoma Park.

Faubus said that while he didn't personally care for horse racing at Hot Springs the state should derive funds from it.

The horse racing aspect of the bond issue's financing came in for criticism in a report submitted to the North Arkansas Methodist Church convention meeting this week.

Delegates to the 126th annual meeting too no action on the report by Dr. William E. Brown, executive director of the affiliated Christian Civic Foundation of Arkansas.

"Such a relationship as proposed in support of education by Oklahoma race track gambling must not and cannot be tolerated in the state of Arkansas," Brown's report said.

An editorial in the foundation's newsletter, contained in the report, declared that the bond issue would give horse racing at Hot Springs a new lease on life for another 25 years at least.

The bonds would be retired over a 20-year period.

Irish Playwright Isolated in Jail

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Irish playwright Brendan Behan is in an isolation cell at police headquarters, accused of disturbing the peace.

Officers picked up Behan, 38, at McGoo's Pizzeria Restaurant in Hollywood Wednesday after manager Jerry Brentari refused to serve him a beer. Brentari told police he arrested the playwright after he started swearing and acting disorderly in the restaurant.

Patrolman Charles Brewer said Behan swung at him but missed, while officers were trying to take a photograph at headquarters.

Said Brewer: "He acted like a character out of one of his plays."

Bronze Age Urn

BERLIN (AP)—Bronze Age burial urns and splinters of early Stone Age vases, 3,000 to 4,000 years old, have been reported found by Schwerin Pre-historic Museum officials in the Malchin district of East Germany.

Suit Against NAACP Dismissed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Circuit Judge Guy Amsler Tuesday dismissed a suit against the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People saying it would be futile for him to try and keep the Negro group from filing lawsuits.

The suit dismissed by Amsler was filed in December of 1957 by former Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett. It asked an order restraining the NAACP from practicing law in

Kennedy Tried to Get Negro Driver

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Police Commissioner L. B. Sullivan denied today that Montgomery police deliberately failed to a Justice Department official to a white mob.

Testifying during a federal court injunction hearing, Sullivan said there was no indication that there would be trouble before the bus reached the Greyhound terminal in Montgomery May 20.

A shrieking mob of white men and women attacked the racially mixed riders and bystanders, and left at least 20 victims clubbed and beaten.

Sullivan conceded, on cross-examination, that he assigned no additional officers to the bus depot as the segregation-challenging riders approached the city from Birmingham.

Before Sullivan testified, a police captain said he took a beaten Justice Department official to hospital during the May 20 riot even though, he said, the man did not want to go.

The statement by Capt. D. N. Lackey regarding John Seigenthaler tied in with testimony of other defense witnesses in an effort to disprove the government charges that police were lax in handling the situation.

U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. has been listening to testimony for four days about mob violence against Freedom Riders in Montgomery and at Birmingham and Anniston.

Justice Department attorneys are asking for a court order to compel Montgomery police to protect interstate bus riders in the future, and also for continuation of a temporary no-violence injunction against the Ku Klux Klan.

Birmingham police and one Klan action were cleared of blame earlier in the hearing.

A witness told the court Ally, Gen. Robert F. Kennedy intervened in behalf of the Freedom Riders after refusal of Greyhound drivers to take the bus on to Montgomery had left the riders stranded in Birmingham.

Greyhound Supt. George E. Cruik of Birmingham testified about a telephone call he received from the President's brother after regular drivers refused to drive the bus from Birmingham to Montgomery, saying that they feared for their safety.

RUNS THE SHOW—Edmond O'Brien, accustomed to working in front of the camera, now is directing movies from behind it—and there's still plenty of actor in Eddie the director. He laughs, screams, rages—all in the cause of making "Deadlock" the best film he can possibly make.

or drive it himself. Then, he continued, Kennedy suggested he get a Negro driver if the regular white drivers wouldn't move it.

After he told Kennedy no Negro drivers were available, the bus official said, Kennedy commented: "Well, hell, you can look for one can't you?"

Several regular schedules were canceled before a Greyhound driver finally brought the bus to Montgomery, under heavy Highway Patrol escort to the city limits.

The Freedom Riders were attacked at the Montgomery bus station by a jeering mob of white persons and about 20 persons were injured during the rioting.

Defense attorneys called several police officers who told of precautions they said were taken. They said there had been no rumblings of possible violence prior to the arrival of the bus and said police were

...what is it dad? To me it seems to be a multitude of jealous people, who have forgotten God, and are experimenting with scientific formulas that could tear us apart. What does it mean—"Am I my brother's keeper?"

What a thought for this age...for men who literally carry our lives in their hands. At best we are confused. The time-table is tipped in favor of total destruction. Why, oh why, will wise men "deaf-ear" God? He said, "I am the way and the truth." He gave us His church where we could learn to love each other more, but many a man refuses to be called to worship. God, have mercy on all those who stray, and help us explain the world through love.

You In The Church

The Church In You

-- form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

The Churches of This Community, Are the Only Institutions Which Have as Their Main Function, the Transforming of Human Lives
They Are the Sign Boards Pointing the Way to God.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through this series of pages the appeal is for all men to stand up and be counted . . . to combat
Communism on all front . . . to be faithful to God,

Our Ministers Are God's Servants Who Call the Signals Against the Organized Forces of Evil. They Invite You to Enlist On the Side For God. . . to Come to Church.

"HE WHO WAITS UPON THE LORD SHALL RENEW HIS FAITH"
